

I think that Satelite Radio should be allowed to give all services to it's paying clients without restrictions from the NAS. Allow them to give it's paying members local traffic and weather reports. It is no different than online users are able to do thru their internet providers.